Unspoilt World

Lord, we live midst wonder, beauty,
Here in this our lovely land;
You have given us this bounty
Freely from your gracious hand.
You, the Builder, made our mountains,
Ramparts of your strength and power;
You, the Artist, stroke your colours
Into sunset, sea and flower.

Lord of Music, we sing carols,
Trumpet, organ, harp all play;
Poet Lord, may all our lives be
Odes to love and joy each day.
Shepherd Lord, we are your people,
By our caring Pastor led;
Farmer Lord, you love and grow us,
Feeding us with daily bread.

Lord, our Engineer, you've laid down

Roads that lead to heaven above;
Lord, our Healer, Teacher, Parent,

Show us how to serve and love.
We confess, Lord, all too often
We have soiled and spoiled your world.
Carbon footprints mar our progress:
Birds dead; dams dry; buds unfurled.

Lord of suns and stars and planets,
You commanded earth's first man:
'Cultivate and guard this garden;
Cherish it; obey my plan.'
Lord, you bid us love our neighbours,
Serve your world as is its right.
May we help you, Lord, Creator,
Keep our land unspoilt and bright.
