GOOD SHEPHERD HYMN

(Tune: St Denio - Immortal, invisible, God only wise)

O Lord of new life, for your blessing we pray:
Make holy the joy of this festival day.
We celebrate guidance, we celebrate light;
Rejoicing, we meet here again in your sight.

O Lord, our Good Shepherd, you give us this place,
A home where we share the rich gifts of your grace.
Embraced by the mountain and gardens and trees,
We see your warm care and your love in all these.

O Lord, our Good Shepherd, we enter through you,
A door for your sheep, to enjoy life that's new,
For which we here offer our thanks and our praise,
In Eucharist gratefully all of our days.

O Lord, our Good Shepherd, we join with your flock,
Our families and friends in this house built on rock.
When others we serve, true ubuntu we show
And grow fully human through people we know.

Good Shepherd, we ask you to be our life's guide,
To tend us and send us, and stay by our side;
To lead us, and feed us with your bread and wine;
By your Holy Spirit our lives to refine.

Now, gifted by God, this communion of saints,
Our Good Shepherd Church with a Bishopscourt heart,
Will bring back to Protea a village revived.
We pray for God's will in this precious new start.

Words : John Gardener

The Good Shepherd hymn was written for the re-opening of the church building in 2010. Founded by the first Bishop of Cape Town, Robert Gray, the Good Shepherd Church was originally built in 1864 on this site on the Bishopscourt estate for the freed slaves. For well over 150 years its history has been eventful but interrupted, especially in the 1960s by the expulsion of the Protea Village people in terms of the Group Areas Act. In 2010 the church building was widened and extensively refurbished. The Good Shepherd hymn has since then been sung on Good Shepherd Sunday and other significant occasions.

The sixth verse was added for the celebration in December 2020 of the Church's becoming a parish church under the Archbishop of Cape Town.
